Introduction

The ancient sages knew something...which the contemporary world forgot: Man is God.

Instead of filling that Divine role, man build his beliefs in accordance to ignorance and instant gratification...a modern god/gods to suit each and every need:

False Love, Lies, Deception, Depravity, Wilful Ignorance, Intolerance, Greed, Idolatry, Violence/War...and the list of sin goes on and on and on...and is built upon its foundations, with more darkness in an attempt to deny Light and Truth.

What Exactly is Truth? This question has baffled the minds of many seekers...simply because the search has been conducted in all the wrong places. Here is TRUTH:

- A Child is a sleeping God which knows not this World thus it is blameless for it lacks understanding, thus has no Iniquity.
- Your physical body will die one day...but your soul may live on...
- You have made yourself blind through free will and embraced the iniquity of this world...abandoning your Divinity.
- If you do NOT remedy the previous point, you WILL die spiritually - I.E your soul will cease to exist and become a shell of emptiness without reasoning or intelligence (or become a mindless wraith - a parasite). While living, your soul would be drenched in extent and degree with the physical ego of instant gratification (negative ego), thus cannot function outside of the physical reality as the Divine spark is extinguished.
- The Unquestionable and Undeniable law of Cause and Effect...which relates to everything mentioned prior...

These are but a few undeniable Truths which no living person (or dead) can dispute irrelevant of perception, will or education. Think on it and consider the dire importance of these seemingly insignificant points...perhaps it will stir the sleeping God within you.

On our personal path of Hexagrammaton, we have discovered many revelations concerning the Seat of God which resides within us...make no mistake, we are not referring to the messiahs or prophets of love and forgiveness...no...we are speaking of the God of Judgement and Mercy, that God of Duality yet not of Duality, of everything and nothing...that ancient "I am That I am" the awakened God within the self. Yet few people can comprehend this of what we speak...not because it is lost in translation...no...because they lack Divine insight and understanding. Are you one of these lost souls? Perhaps, perhaps not, who are we to say what you are and what you are not...nevertheless, the TRUTH remains: Either you are Fallible or you are not...there is NO middle point, irrelevant of what you may or may not believe!

Now, on to the point of this manuscript...

Connecting with your inner God and merging with it, is a subject which has been saturated with deception and is abundant with lies. This is where we step in...before we continue let's clarify something yet again:

Divine Creed

“We are the enemies of lies, of iniquity, deception, negative ego and all things which humanity embrace through vice and wilful ignorance. We are not the embodiment of compassion and love, as we have no love of this world...we are the gods which is alien unto you, for we do Not belong to this world as we belong to ourselves and are governed by our Divine Law and Will*, which at all times is Good and Just as its foundation is that of TRUTH. We do not seek worship nor rulership, nor do we subjugate the enlightened. Our written works is governed by * our design *, not by this world’s expectation or to remedy that which is absent in the hearts of men! Our written works is like the wind, which stirs and is felt by all...but cannot be comprehended. Hexagrammaton is not a cult following in which acolytes are required to sustain the ego or the structure of it...Hexagrammaton is eternal and is not supported by membership...but is realised through individual will...”

Hints on The Single Serpent

The Single Serpent Kundalini meditation is indeed arcane in origin and construct...however few understand the mechanics behind the initiation of a Gnostic state. Yes, the Kundalini is a method to obtain a Gnostic state and infuse the soul with energy which will automatically transmute in accordance to the Will of each individual...but it is not flawless.

Within the “chakra” system there exists seven (7) major points...in reality ALL the “chakra” points are but one and the number seven relates simply to Divinity or obtaining/realising Divinity etc. As mentioned elsewhere it is not a complete system or pathworking. The “chakra” system is simple training wheels to realise (in all eventuality) the God in Self.

The “serpent” which courses through the “chakra” represents the wisdom of awakening the character/nature of God. The Root Chakra being the foundation of earth and the Crown Chakra the foundation of heaven - from earth to heaven and from heaven to earth, very much like the “middle pillar” ritual. Uniting the heaven with the earth, and earth with heaven relates to the higher self and shadow forming Hexagram.

In all eventuality the Gnostic/higher state is achieved, not through circulation of energy, but by the “mind” or intelligence of the spirit which translates as the “Will”.

“Thus we shall never be able to tell of virtues brightness, unless by looking inward we perceive the fair countenance of justice and temperance, and are convinced that neither the evening nor morning star are half so beautiful and bright.”

- Plotinus

Here follows the aforementioned meditation, mantras omitted:

- Enter a meditative state, use any method you please.
- Focus upon your Base Chakra. It starts to vibrate and glow in either it's corresponding colour or any colour you desire (gold is best). Feel this emanating. When you feel you are ready, envision a serpent emerging from your Base Chakra. It travels up your spine towards your Sacral Chakra. With the serpent's "tail" still anchored in your Base Chakra, its head enters your Sacral Chakra, causing it to vibrate and glow as before. Proceed through all the Chakras until the serpent reaches your Crown Chakra (its tail still anchored in the Base Chakra). All Chakras must remain alit and vibrating.
- Instead of the serpent going in an "s" motion - it must go straight up through all the chakras.
- Strongly visualize the hissing sound the serpent makes.
- During this, breathe from the base of your spine...move your breathing consciousness to the base of your spine. I.E. you don't breathe from your lungs, you breathe from that area.
- The serpent must be red in colour, and NOT be a cobra.
- The serpent stops at the crown chakra, it doesn't travel back down.

Please note that our path of Hexagrammaton is not formulated through Eastern, Asian or other cultural beliefs, but through practical application - applying that which works and discarding that which does not.

In Conclusion

As mentioned, many seekers will approach questionable organizations, cults and orders in order to obtain wisdom or to find absolution from turmoil, but instead they become captives. The fallible self will seek out more iniquity...because this resonates with its identity...divinity will NEVER fill itself with ignorance, just as a thirsty man will not sate his thirst with coarse salt. We can advise the seeker not to seek such things as it will make your soul barren and resolve nothing. When you empower yourself FIRST all else will fall into place...however it depends on what you deem as empowerment. Remember, your reasoning will dictate your perception and not the other way around..just as the soul dictates the mind.

Verily we say this to you:

Darkness seeks darkness, and is confounded by the light, as darkness begets the flesh and the light begets *God*. If you love yourself, and belong to this world, it means that you know not love, for you love the world, and know not *God* (Divine you). There is no in-between path which will accommodate this first step or the last.
