

The Voiceless Bird

By Baron and Baronessa Araignee

Introduction

There are many that enters the Occult world with deluded expectations, and child-like aspirations, but very few has lucid reasoning.

On the subject of Evocation, we will bring to light some matters which others seems not to fully comprehend.

One of the greatest problems with this world of men is this thing which is known as "relegion". With this cancer comes dogma, brainwashing and blind faith without healthy reasoning. Unfortunately humanity are sheep and cannot lead by example-thus the crutch of relegion is always readily available. But what does relegion have to do with Evocation? Simply this:

The most popular evocation must be Demonic/Infernal Rites. What the western world knows of "Demons" is what is based upon relegion. Lets take a look at Hell in which these Demons allegedly reside:

When Socrates committed suicide after his sentence of death, Plato (his student) became so bitter he created the concept of modern day hell. Much later in the Divine Comedy, Dante "refined" the Hell concept and the whole of Christiandom lapped it up like starved mongrels. Can you see the pattern yet?

Lets be more clear shall we? If you believe the religious dogma of the world then your Evocation will reflect the results. This simply means you are mind-fucking yourself. Get it? If you wish to have none deluded results, stop being a fucking retard and use your brains. What you believe will manifest in this world through perception and will-and if you didnt know this already, this is actually the foundation of all Magical practices.

If you believe you can contact a Demon through a black mirror then more than likely your belief will manifest the result.

We come across Many individuals that bestows some magical properties to an object or item-however they stop to think about the object itself. A black mirror DOES NOT HOLD ANY MAGICAL PROPERTIES!

Except for what you bestow upon it-FACT. The same goes for ANY other Occult tools,herbs, liquids etc etc. When did people become so gravely stupid?

Stop reading Medieval and Elizabethan Grimoire trash! Those people where mostly idiots (save for a few).

We know that some Occultists out there are not complete morons, so kindly do not spread these silly misconceptions. Lead by example!

So, now that we have said our peace on the matter, we present to you this free PDF to help you with the subject matter of Evocation.

Please note that this is not an instructional ebook, its a guide of do's and dont's.

If you want a book on Evocation, buy one of our books or any other books available on the market. As the saying goes: "If your good at something, never do it for free"

The Beginning

- Question everything!
- Dont believe what is not evident!
- Master yourself!
- Grow your spiritual power!
- Master and move on!
- Remove from you that which you do not want!
- Read! Research! Cross-reference!
- Dont be deluded! Seperate fantasy from reality!
- Work hard! Study more! Practice even harder!
- Dont, Dont, Dont follow conformity!
- The so called "Law" of each country DOES NOT govern spirituality!
If it attempts to do so, it is your enemy and wishes to enslave you!
- Predator or Prey? Victim or Victor? CHOOSE!
- Create a working area!
- Dilligently Evoke at a specific time/location! Make it muscle memory.
- Entities does not govern you, you govern them!
- Dont ever grovel like swine-this is weakness!
- Dont request-Command!
- Dont lower yourself to a lessor creatures level-rise above it so that they may see you as God and then obey your every whim. So many fail in Evocation due to this overlooked fact.
- Let Demonolotors worship Demons! You command them!
- When you hear of idividuals claiming that they: "Do not command Demons and "respectfully" request them to do this and that" Be assured that these people are sparkly eyed prey and are already enslaved. Do not keep company with them!
- Power seeks power and devours all which is lessor! This is a great Universal law that cannot be denied!

From the list above you can gain experience in this field of Evocation.

Magick is a very solitary path with ultimate selfish motives. No holding hands, and dancing around a camp fire! This is the cold hard world of Earth where cause and effect governs all Citizens! NO ONE will give you spiritual power if you as an individual do not take it for yourself-remember this! If not, you will be dissapointed-we can stake our lives on it.

Evocation Structure

- 1. Choose an "Entity"-they dont "choose" you! Or perhaps you believe that they are going to "Evoke" themselves?
- 2. Learn the "spirits" attributes,character and history(research historic data, not questionable sources such as grimoires)
- 3.Formulate your own personal Evocation Ceremony, DO NOT use any structure allready available which you did not create yourself! If needs be, beg and borrow bits and pieces-but only as a dire last resort-Dont be Lazy!
- 4. Choose a day and time to evoke-irrelevant what books instruct you upon! Remember, question everything!
- 5. If you cannot communicate with them-find a way! A pendulum! dowsing rods! Ouija Board! Do not let the "Entity" dictate the communication method! YOU are in charge!
- 6. "Spirits" do not have vocal cords so dont be an idiot and expect to hear a "spirits" voice in stereo! If you do-you are more than likely insane! "Entities" can only mentally project words, images and sounds to your mind-you will do well to remember this.

7. "Entities", "Spirits" etc does not have physical bodies so they cannot manifest physically! Only visibly! Be very careful to take note of this distinction, for many Practitioners has bullshitted their way to fame.

8. Repetition, Repetition, Repetition! You may not get results the first time around! Expect this and accept it! Why? Because you are either a novice and have not developed your spiritual senses to the required degree! And no amount of self bullshitting will change this fact!

9. Find a Master Teacher! Books will only teach you so much. Even we write a mere drop of our knowledge within our books-And for good reason!

10. You dont need wands, brooms, cauldrons, swords, knives, bells, gongs etc to Evoke! These tools are merely focuss points to assist you. Think!

11. Any "Evocation" has a Beginning, Middle and End structure, so simply work it accordingly!

Beginning:

The preperation to the Rite. Such as meditations, gnostics and Incantations.

Middle:

The "Being" is Evoked, now you charge it by command. Be VERY specific, but keep it short to one "charge" per Ceremony.

End:

Other incantations, and the Dismissal/Discharge of the "Being".

These are the Basics of Evocation and Invocation. Here ends the lesson.
